

Anticipation Guide—an example

Directions: In the column labeled me, place a check next to any statement with which you tend to agree. Be prepared to defend and support your opinions with specific examples. After reading Animal Farm, place a check next to those statements with which you think George Orwell would agree.

Me	George Orwell
		It is a good idea to be distrustful of political leaders.
		Those who work harder than others should be paid more.
		When someone is unable to work, s/he should be supported by the government.
		People are generally motivated by self-interest.
		Power eventually corrupts those who have it.
